Started as the "adult" section of the Mountain Folk Festival, the Levi Jackson Dance Weekend, located at Levi Jackson State Park, London, KY, continues a tradition of cooperative fun and fellowship among experienced dancers. It is for adults and teenagers (teenagers under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian). Dance calling and food preparation are a cooperative effort from among the participants. Advance registration is appreciated for all sessions. Drop-ins are asked to pay per session and to arrange for their own meals for the weekend; food is pre-purchased only for the number who have pre-registered.

The fun begins at 8p Friday and continues through Saturday evening.
